

Gentle Is the Glow

Jeff De Vries

1st verse) I sit in my bed in a small dark room
And feel the stillness of the night
I've grown a bit tired but I am warm
The air cools down as I write

Chorus) Now I know how gentle is the glow
And I see how time moves so slow
I just rest and turn my eyes to the God who hears my sigh
And I lift up a prayer in the night (to His light)

2nd verse) It's calm in my heart for He gives me peace
The kind I've never known before
There's no sound but I hear the music dancing on I'm not so lonely anymore tag) I just rest and turn my eyes to the God who hears my sigh

And I lift up a prayer to His light
